

State Panel Reaches Accord On Pay, Taxes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— State legislators beset by pickets and obviously idle threats to shut down the state ground out an agreement late Tuesday on a state employee pay raise and a proposal to cut Ohioans' state income taxes.

They generally insisted the negotiations ended with about the same results they would have anyway, had there not been the rash of work stoppages and attempts at "coercion" put on mostly by leaders of less than 10 per cent of the state's 81,300 employees.

Agreement by a conference committee of three Democrats and three Republicans, after a day-long private meeting in one of the state's rented offices across from the Capitol, apparently set the stage for a vote by full sessions of the House and Senate next Tuesday.

Committee Chairman Myrl Shoemaker, D-88 Bournville, said the panel will meet again at 4 p.m. next Monday to sign the agreement. Between now and then, he said technical and drafting problems must be worked out on the bill.

Both chambers are expected to approve the bill intact, since rules of the General Assembly prevent the offering of individual amendments once a conference committee report has been agreed to and signed by a joint committee of the two houses.

At the crux of the agreement was a state pay hike weighted to give the biggest increase of 30 cents an hour to the 38,924 workers who earn less than $8,000 a year. Those earning between $8,000 and $12,000 would get 20 cents. About 38,900 fall into that category. All others, earning above $12,000—some 11,382 in number—would get 10 cents an hour more.

At the same time, Republican conferees were able to get Democrats to go along with tax relief—although not their original proposal to repeal the state's 5 per cent intangible tax on earnings from stocks and bonds—at a cost of $30 million.

Instead, the committee gave its approval without dissent to a proposal to increase the personal exemption Ohioans may claim under the state income tax from $500 to $650 a year. That part of the bill carries a $10.5 million price tag.

The taxpayer would not be allowed to claim the new higher exemption for himself and each of his dependents until he files his 1975 return in the early part of 1976. However, income withholding tables will be adjusted in January of next year to reflect the tax break.

Although the pay raise and tax relief held the keys to the bi-partisan agreement, supplemental aid to primary and secondary schools—at $45 million—was the biggest single item in the compromise.

It would mean that in addition to amounts already appropriated, the state will distribute to school districts within the next 11 months an amount almost equal to $20 more per pupil. Many districts are in financial trouble as a result of the defeat of various levies in the May primary.

Among some of the other spending proposals that will go before the legislature are those setting up an experimental program of mass transit for the elderly, increases in benefits for retired state employees, and one that requires the state to pick up the tab for transporting Ohio's mentally retarded pupils.

Pickets from the Ohio State Government Employees Association—one of the newest and smallest of the organizations which represents state workers—at one point filed into the outer office and waved their signs that could be seen by the legislators through a window.

The same group picketed the Statehouse throughout the day but said they were not on strike.

Earlier, House Speaker A. G. Lancione, D-99 Bellaire, accused the pickets and strikers of "taking the law into their own hands" and said the legislature "won't give in to coercion." Lancione said he deplored threats made by another union, which claims a total of 7,000—the American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees—that it intended "to shut down the state." The speaker said "They can't do it."

Otherwise the conference committee agreement provides:

—$2.1 million for transporting Ohio's mentally retarded pupils.

—$2 million to provide free mass transit for elderly citizens from Jan. 1 to July 1, 1975.

—$1 million for establishment of an Ohio Industrial Development Center.

—$5 million to help the state retirement systems fund benefit increases for retirees, mostly those who retired prior to 1955.

—$800,000 for improvements, including a swimming pool at the State School for the Blind in Columbus.

—$150,000 for architectural fees for the new medical school in northeastern Ohio.

—$500,000 for improvements and renovations at Central State University.

—$50,000 for Bowling Green State University to create an educational museum.

—$1.2 million to help cities meet additional costs of police and firemen's pension programs.

$800,000 for special subsidies to county boards of education.

—$270,000 for the Department of Natural Resources to take over two Lake Erie parks in Cleveland.

Those allocations would be added to previously approved amounts of $14.9 million to retire Vietnam bonus bonds and $12.5 million as the state's matching share of vocational education construction.

All told, the committee is recommending to the legislature the supplemental appropriations bill totaling $124 million. The revenues would be derived from the newly announced state surplus of $80.4 million, along with $43.5 million in expected profits from the state lottery which goes into operation Aug. 12.

Impeachment Articles Set For Presentation

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee is preparing to take the last testimony in its impeachment inquiry and then turn to drawing up proposed articles of impeachment.

At least six articles, the chief one charging obstruction of justice in connection with the Watergate cover-up, are reported to be drafted and ready for presentation to the committee in secret briefing sessions Thursday and Friday.

The questioning today of Herbert W. Kalmbach, President Nixon's former personal lawyer, completes a 10-week examination by the committee into a wide range of actions by the President and his close associates.

After Kalmbach's testimony White House Counsel James D. St. Clair will be given an opportunity to sum up the case against impeachment and the stage will then be set for the final act in the committee's historic proceedings.

In a related development, the chairman of the Democratic National Committee, Robert S. Strauss, said in an interview he would be "terribly surprised and shocked" if the committee and full House did not vote to impeach Nixon. He said he had reached this decision over the weekend after studying the transcripts and other evidence released by the committee.

He said he has not discussed impeachment with the House leadership. In an interview with Rabbi Baruch Korff, a Nixon supporter from Providence, R. I., Nixon described Watergate as the "thinnest scandal in American history" and said that if the charges against him were true "I wouldn't serve for one minute."

Korff is chairman of the National Citizens' Committee for Fairness to the Presidency, Inc. The interview was published today in a paperback book called "The Personal Nixon: Staying on the Summit."

EXPENSIVE NEST—Mrs. Randy Weller, 121 W. Corwin St., found a dove in her hanging geranium planter about two weeks ago, and the bird apparently has nested there. Not that its such a bad place - Mrs. Weller talks to the dove daily and even pets it. The only complaint the bird has lodged so far is during watering time. It covers its head with its wings when the sprinkling can is used.

Council Objects To Carryout Application

Circleville City Council by a vote of 4-1 rescinded an earlier action on a carry out liquor license application by Circle G Corporation, doing business as Dailey's Market.

At the council meeting of July 2, members voted not to object to the issuance of the license upon the recommendation of Chief of Police Robert Temple in spite of opposition voiced by the Rev. Fred H. Mercer, 400 Nicholas Drive.

At last night's meeting, Eddie Combs, 717 N. Pickaway St., a member of the congregation of The Church of God, asked council to reconsider on the basis of the proximity of the church, the Nicholas Drive Elementary School and the Circleville High School. He also had petitions signed by over 540 residents of the general area asking the license not be issued.

However, Combs did not present the petitions to council because they were to be presented to the Ohio Department of Liquor Control.

A motion was made by Councilman Tom Wells and seconded by Harold Hoffman that council reconsider and lodge an objection with the Ohio Department of Liquor Control asking for a hearing. In the ensuing roll call vote, Councilman David Crawford voted not to object to the issuance of the permit, Ben Gordon, who acted as president at the previous meeting when the action was first taken, abstained from voting, and Hoffman, Wells, Dixie Watters and John Jenkins voted to object to the issuance of the license.

Council Clerk Robert Shadley was directed to send the objection to the Ohio Department of Liquor Control and request a hearing be held in Circleville. Mayor Frank Barnhill agreed to be council's representative at the hearing and present the city's reason for objecting to the permit.

Three ordinances vacating alleys crossing the Norfolk and Western Railroad between Mound and High Streets were passed by council.

The railroad has agreed to install curb and gutter at the alley openings so they cannot be used by vehicular Judiciary Committee Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., said Tuesday he hopes the committee can reach a final vote by July 26 on whether to recommend impeachment.

With the Democrats holding a 21-17 edge in the committee the key question on any impeachment vote will be how many Republicans support it.

Rep. Charles E. Wiggins, R-Calif., a leading Nixon loyalist on the committee, predicted Tuesday that no Republicans would vote for impeachment and that enough Democrats would switch over to kill it in committee.

"We're going to win this goddam thing," he told newsmen. "I think the committee will act as lawyers when the chips are down. The evidence just is not there."

Wiggins' comment prompted other Republicans to say they didn't know how they were going to vote and that it was possible they could vote for impeachment.

"There are at least four Republicans waiting to see what the legal theories (for impeachment) are," said Rep.

Thomas F. Railsback, R-Ill. He identified the four as himself and William S. Cohen of Maine, M. Caldwell Butler of Virginia and Hamilton Fish Jr. of New York. Cohen agreed and said there could be more than four Republicans voting for impeachment after examining the proposed articles and the facts that relate to them.

Wiggins' prediction led Rep. Don Edwards, D-Calif., to say, "I'm at a loss to understand how anyone could come to that conclusion and be a lawyer and a literate person."

"After being immersed in the evidence I would be very much concerned about the stability of the government if that took place. And I don't know how any member of Congress could explain that result to the American public."

Special Counsel John Doar and minority counsel Albert Jenner are to present a number of proposed articles of impeachment to the committee Thursday, each one supported by facts culled from the mass of evidence the staff has compiled.

The failure of the staff to include facts that would speak against each proposed article has led to protests by the Republicans, and they have assigned Deputy Minority Counsel Sam Garrison to provide them.

Besides an obstruction of justice article, the staff is expected to propose articles based on:

—Alleged use of government agencies for political purposes, including use of the Internal Revenue Service for harassment.

—Contempt of Congress for failing to comply with eight committee subpoenas calling for 147 taped conversations.

—Nixon's personal finances, including underpayment of income taxes in the years 1968-72 and allegations that federal funds were turned to his personal use.

—The use of wiretaps and the special investigating unit known as the plumbers for domestic surveillance.

—A broad article charging Nixon with abuse of his presidential powers and with failure to meet the Constitutional requirement that he "take care that the laws be faithfully executed."

President Blasts Watergate Publicity

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon says he believes there has been "harassment on a massive basis of innocent people" by some members of the press and prosecutors in the Watergate case.

And in an interview made public on Tuesday, he said "the chance to get a fair trial anywhere is impossible" for any Watergate figure.

He said that if the charges against him in connection with Watergate were true, "I wouldn't serve for one minute" and nobody would have to ask him to resign. He termed Watergate "the thinnest scandal in American history."

The President said that if he "had bugged out of Vietnam," as some liberal members of the press wanted, "Watergate would have been a blip. They wouldn't have cared."

The interview is included in a new paperback book, "The Personal Nixon: Staying on the Summit," written by Rabbi Baruch M. Korff of Providence, R.I., and Rehoboth, Mass. He is head of an anti-impeachment organization known as the National Citizens' Committee for Fairness to the Presidency.

Rabbi Korff said the May 13 interview at the White House was arranged by Bruce Herschensohn, deputy assistant to the President. Herschensohn also provided a flattering commentary about the author for the back cover.

Staffers in the press office of the Western White House were providing duplicate copies of sections of the interview for distribution to reporters.

Rabbi Korff's committee published the $1.25 paperback and will print 300,000 copies in the next month, a key time in the Watergate impeachment proceedings. The committee gets the royalties, the rabbi said.

The tape-recorded interview contained a defense of the President's position, harsh criticism of the news media and some of the special Watergate prosecutor's men and a denial of any anti-semitism in response to reports of racial slurs in transcripts of some presidential conversations.

In the interview, the President said that if charges against him on Watergate and the cover-up were true, "nobody would have to ask me to resign. I wouldn't serve for one minute if they were true."

"But, I know they are not true, and therefore I will stay here, do the job that I was elected to do, and trust to the American constitutional process to make the final verdict."

However, the President said he felt resignation or impeachment at this time "would have devastating consequences in terms of foreign policy, would jeopardize the best hope we have to build a structure of peace in the world."

Nixon said "the great majority of those who have analyzed the (Watergate presidential) transcripts say they don't find an impeachable offense, but they don't like their tone."

"Well, I can say if they were to tape the conversations of Presidents that I have known they wouldn't like their tone either."

Taylor Resigns City Post

Charles Taylor, Circleville public utilities manager, has submitted his letter of resignation to the board of public utilities Monday.

In announcing his resignation to The Herald today, Taylor said that he has accepted a position with a private industry. His resignation becomes effective in mid September but Taylor said he has "offered my services free of charge as long as needed."

He stated he has been contemplating his resignation for quite some time and felt that now was the most opportune time to leave the city's service.

"While we were seeking approval of the grant and plans for the new sewage treatment plant I felt I could not leave. And I don't think it would be fair to my successor to stay until construction of the plant has actually gotten under way," he reported.

In a recessed session Tuesday city council gave unofficial permission to the board of public utilities to begin searching for a replacement for Taylor.

The replacement must be licensed and certified by the Ohio Environmental Protection Agency and there are very few such persons around according to a spokesman for the board.

Noting that he submitted his letter of resignation with the deepest regret, Taylor said, "I don't think I could have finer people anywhere to work with than the present board of public utilities, city council, the mayor and the employees of the utilities department."

Weather

Sunny and warm today with temperatures in the upper 80s. Tonight, temperatures will be in the mid-60s under fair skies. High tomorrow will be in the low 90s with a 30 per cent chance of showers or thunderstorms in the afternoon. High Tuesday was 82 and the low was a cool 52.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market sagged today in a lazy summer session on Wall Street.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 5.16 at 770.81, and gainers trailed losers by nearly 5-to-1 on the New York Stock Exchange. Trading was very slow.

Analysts said the market atmosphere was dominated by disappointment over the failure of last Friday's explosion rally to carry any significant momentum into this week.

U.S. Steel was the most-active NYSE issue, down 7/8 at 44 3/4. A 25,800-share block traded at 45.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index was up .23 at 77.20.

The NYSE's composite index of all its listed common stocks stood at .24, down 43.02.

The Amex volume leader was Hotel Investors, down 1/8 at 7 1/2 in trading that included a 34,000-share block at that price.

Police Victors In Siege

WASHINGTON (AP) — The specter of bloodshed had hung over the federal courthouse throughout the five-day confrontation between police and two armed convicts. But restraint on both sides produced a siege of wits and endurance instead of bullets.

The government strategy during the 105-hour ordeal may offer a lesson in patience for police around the nation.

The potential for violence and death was present from the moment the armed convicts, Frank Gorham and Robert Nathan Jones, seized eight hostages and held them at gunpoint in the U.S. District Courthouse cellblock Thursday. They demanded freedom and a flight out of the country in exchange for safe release of the hostages.

The first night passed, the hostages survived unharmed, and the prisoners were talking by telephone with a team of law enforcement negotiators and with reporters.

"The main thrust of our strategy was to keep them talking and our main ally was the press," recalled Deputy Atty. Gen. Laurence Silberman, who became the ultimate decision-maker when the negotiators disagreed among themselves.

When reporters' calls to the cellblock slackened off, law enforcement officials posing as interested citizens made their own calls to keep Gorham and Jones awake and distracted, Silberman said in an interview.

As long as the prisoners held the hostages, there was little dispute about the strategy of waiting. "It was terribly important to us to do nothing to jeopardize the lives of the hostages or the inmates," Silberman said.

But the negotiators sensed there was room for bargaining with Gorham and Jones and played for time.

The government team included Chief U.S. Marshal George McKinney, his assistant James Palmer, deputy police chief Maurice Cullinane, Police Chief Jerry Wilson, Acting U.S. Atty. Earl Silbert, Norman Carlson, head of the Bureau of Prisons, and Donald Moore, special agent in charge of the Washington FBI office.

Silberman said it appeared violence would be unavoidable when Gorham said he had an axe and threatened that heads would roll.

But again, they waited and again, Gorham cooled down.

The hostages escaped unharmed Sunday. With Gorham slumbering and Jones on the telephone, authorities smuggled in an elevator key and the hostages fled within minutes.

And still, authorities chose to wait instead of rushing the cellblock to subdue Gorham and Jones by force.

"The pressure was off and we were generally inclined to just wait them out," Silberman said.

The siege ended Monday night when Gorham and Jones surrendered after one last futile bid for freedom. Chopping their way through air conditioning ducts, they fled the cellblock and exchanged gunfire with police. No one was hit.

The 105 hours without injuries surprised some outside observers.

"All in all, I was really pleased to see the restraint. I couldn't believe it, especially in this town. The quick response is to go in and start shooting," said George J. Mische, executive director of the National Coordinating Committee for Justice Under Law, a prison reform group.

Prices To Farmers Rising; Food Costs Likely To Jump

WASHINGTON (AP) — As Congress nears passage of legislation to aid cattlemen with government-backed loans, Agriculture Secretary Earl L. Butz says prices farmers receive for meat and other products are coming back up.

Consumers will begin to feel the increases in meat and other livestock prices soon, Butz told a White House news conference Tuesday.

Butz said farm prices have turned up from the plunge that began last winter and that this would be reflected in wholesale price index figures to be released next month by the Bureau of Labor Statistics. He said the increases will result in "some very adverse" publicity about farm prices contributing to inflation.

As the prices received by cattlemen approached their low point last month, the cattlemen began to withhold their beef from market. They convinced the federal government to help with a $100 million purchase of beef and pork designed to give livestock producers a short-term boost and to persuade consumers that meat was a good buy.

With a prod from the government, the National Association of Food Chains recently urged its members—retail stores—to feature sales on beef to encourage consumers to buy, thus helping to move the cattle supply to market.

Now that that meat has been sold, prices are starting to rise again. But in the meantime, cattlemen had urged Congress to save them from bankruptcy. And this resulted in Tuesday's House passage of the credit relief bill.

The measure now comes at a time when market conditions already are beginning to provide the industry some

Frank Sinatra Leaves Aussies

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — Frank Sinatra leaves Australia today after a final concert beset by trade union problems right up until a few hours before it began.

Sinatra, who missed a concert in Melbourne, last week threatened to call off his Australian tour—his first in this country in 13 years—after a clash with the Australian press.

Sinatra agreed to a nationwide telecast free of charge to make up for the missed Melbourne concert but the unions would not agree unless conditions were met.

The musicians said they must be paid for the missed concert and extra for the telecast and the telecast had to be prefaced by a statement that it was made possible by the unions concerned.

Sinatra agreed to the conditions after three hours of talks. During the show, he said, "Whether I was right or wrong ... the fact remains that they tried to keep me from saying what I thought and I think that's the thing we've got to fight all the time."

Bishop Installed In Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Declaring that his goal is to be rededicated "to the reality of a diocese as a community of Christian love," Bishop James A. Hickey was installed Tuesday as bishop of the Cleveland Catholic Diocese.

Bishop Hickey told those attending the ceremony at St. John Cathedral, "to be a body of men and women respecting everyone, caring, sharing, showing God's love in our lives is the meaning of our celebration this afternoon."

Bolivia has two capitals: La Paz and Sucre.

Russia, U.S. Argue Over Cyprus Action

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union and the United States were at odds today over what, if anything, the Security Council should do about the Cyprus coup and the overthrow of President Makarios.

At the first council meeting on the crisis, the Soviets on Tuesday called for urgent measures to protect the independence of the island. But the United States, supported by Britain, said information from Cyprus was still too sketchy to make any decisions.

The 15-nation council adjourned to await developments, including possibly a visit by Makarios, who spent the night on Malta en route to London. No time was set for resumption of the debate.

In Tuesday's debate, Soviet delegate Vasily S. Safronchuk blamed the coup on the Greek Army officers who command the Cyprus National Guard. He said the Greek military government must bear responsibility.

He called on the council to "take the most urgent measures to protect the independence, sovereignty and territorial integrity" of Cyprus. "Time will not wait," he declared. But he did not submit a resolution for council action.

Ambassador John A. Scali of the United States said his government supports the "independence and territorial integrity of Cyprus and its existing constitutional arrangements."

But he said, "Unfortunately, there is much ... we still do not know about the emerging situation on Cyprus, and it is difficult at this moment to see clearly whether and how the council can make a positive contribution."

The Makarios government's U.N. representative, Ambassador Zenon Rossides, flared up at the calls for delay and urged an immediate cease-fire resolution.

But like Safronchuk, Rossides did not submit a resolution.

traffic. In view of the safety factor involved, council members suspended the rules and passed the ordinances which officially close Grape Alley, Walnut Alley and South Area Alley from Western Ave. to Canal Street.

An ordinance permitting the Police Department to employ a temporary clerk-typist at the rate of $2.45 per hour was approved. A companion ordinance appropriating the amount of $1,200 for the purpose of paying the clerk-typist was approved. Chief of Police Temple explained the employee was needed to replace Jean Himrod who is on sick leave.

A resolution to adopt the statutory budget for 1975 was approved. Wells questioned the increase of over $10,000 in the budget of the health department for control, prevention and services fund.

Mayor Frank Barnhill explained the need for the increase was for the city to either provide the services itself or to contract for health services with other agencies.

In answer to a question posed by Jim Locke, Dixie Watters explained the proposed statutory budget balanced with anticipated revenue in all but the police and firemen's pension fund.

Prior to adjourning, council met in a recessed session with the Board of Public Utilities.

Carroll O'Connor Misses Taping

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "All in the Family" taped its first show of the fall season without its star, Archie Bunker.

Carroll O'Connor, who plays Bunker in the popular series, is in a contract dispute with Tandem Productions, owners of the show, and was not at the taping on Tuesday night.

The CBS show, entitled "Where's Archie?" centered on Jean Stapleton, Rob Reiner and Sally Struthers.

O'Connor filed suit in June against Tandem, asking the Los Angeles Superior Court to declare whether he has a valid contract. He also seeks $64,017 he claims is owed him in back salary.

Tandem also filed suit against O'Connor and obtained a temporary restraining order which prevents him from working anywhere else.

Turkish Ambassador Osman Olcay charged that the coup was "mounted in Athens." He said Turkey—which considers itself the protector of the Turkish Cypriot minority—wanted a peaceful solution but would not yield its right to protect Turkish Cypriots. Emmanuel Megalokonomos of Greece insisted that what happened in Cyprus was strictly an internal Cypriot affair.

A Page Of Opinion

Taxes Are Inflationary

When the federal government pays $30 billion annually in interest on the national debt — money which it gets from the taxpayers — that $30 billion makes a greater contribution to inflation than it would if taxpayers had kept and spent it.

Money the government spends is more inflationary than money spent by individuals because individuals employ more sense when it comes to spending money than the government does.

Despite this truism, a high government official the other day said inflation was caused by factors such as public resistance to increased taxes. And he was permitted to stay on the payroll after saying it.

On the contrary, public resistance to increased taxes is the greatest brake on inflation. If there had been no such resistance over the years, taxes today would be 100 per cent of incomes.

Taxpayers must remain vigilant to prevent any increase in taxes while demanding reductions in present exorbitant and overlapping levies.

Waterlogged By Watergate

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — Are you finding the tapes, the testimony, the leaks from "informed sources" and all that speculation beginning to drag?

Me, too.

Bugs Baer once remarked that he loved cream puffs but grew ill at the thought of eating an acre of them. More and more Americans apparently now feel that way about Watergate. Dr. Ellsberg's former psychiatrist (we never hear about a new one), Presidential privilege as opposed to Congressional power, and the increasingly heavy intonations of the multiple judges.

Life suddenly seems too short to devote hours to lint-picking through the differences between the White House version of what is on the tapes and the version of the House Judiciary Committee. I find myself more interested in just what were the words our pious President said that had to be shielded from the eyes of Billy Graham.

How many of us will read the 4,133-page record of Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr.'s committee hearings? Even the N.Y. Times, the only paper that printed the entire text of the Versailles Treaty, grew faint when Rodino dropped that 4,133-page bomb in its lap. It whittled it to seven full Times-sized pages, the equal of seven acres of cream puffs.

There are people who go through life feeling guilty because they never finished "War and Peace." But it's not likely they'll take to sackcloth and ashes for not having read such scintillating passages as these — from Rodino's introduction:

"On January 20, 1969, Richard Nixon was inaugurated as the 37th President of the United States."

How's that for a simple declarative sentence?

Or this, by the same best-selling author:

"Every effort was made to preclude inferences in the presentation of this material. A deliberate and scrupulous abstention from conclusions, even by implication, was observed."

Except for the leaks, of course.

Staff members who compiled the monumental record from the minutes of the Senate Watergate Committee, the tapes, the Watergate grand jury, Judge John J. Sirica and elsewhere, apparently worked with the ceaseless energy of pyramid builders. They were pictured as falling asleep during what should have been their lunch times, sometimes on park benches. One man brought a pillow to work with him each day, the better to catnap. Probably the guy who had to copyread the manuscript.

If you're not content with the Time's short-shriftiness, you can pick up the whole report, plus a defense of President Nixon by James D. St. Clair, at the U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. It comes in eight volumes (paperback), stacks up to eight and half inches high, weighs 18 pounds, and costs $35.

Reading time? Depends on whether you have chapped lips or arthritis of the index finger. But before you buy the biggest book of the year, think of what else you might be doing if not reading it. God may have planned for you to make a hole in one the very day that you were reading "Rose Mary Woods and Clark MacGregor were invited to Henry Dent's Political Issues Group but did not attend. At that meeting all strongly urged that you tell Frank Shakespeare that no U.S.I.A. prestige poll similar to the one that damaged Nixon in 1960 is conducted in 1972."

Or you might have bought that $1,000,000 winning lottery ticket, if you hadn't been glued to "On the afternoon of April 27, 1973, Patrick Gray notified Lawrence Higby that he was resigning as Acting Director of the F.B.I. from 4:31 to 4:35 p.m. on April 27, the President had a telephone conversation with (Henry) Petersen during which the President asked if Petersen had any information that

Bacteria Battles Infant Mosquitoes

MACOMB, Ill. (AP) — A scientist says he has discovered a type of bacteria that can kill infant mosquitoes by the billions, has no apparent effect on the ecology and could save millions of lives.

The bacteria could be a potent weapon in fighting malaria, said Dr. Samuel Singer, associate professor of biological sciences at Western Illinois University.

Malaria is transmitted by the anopheles mosquito and kills about 10 million persons worldwide each year, Singer said in an interview Monday.

The racket-shaped bacteria attack tiny tadpole-like mosquito larvae growing near the surface of ponds, lakes and other water bodies.

The bacteria, known as bacillus sphaericus, are cultivated in a pale broth, and one cupful would be enough to control mosquitoes in the average farm pond or lake, said Singer.

The approach would also help control yellow fever and other diseases transmitted by mosquitoes, Singer said. He said it is likely that other bacteria could be used to kill black biting flies and the tiny water snails that transmit parasitic worms.

"It's not as important that we've found something to kill mosquitoes as it is that we are starting a kind of approach," said Singer. "That approach is to use a disease that's found in nature to fight the insect."

In the past several decades, mosquitoes commonly have been controlled by use of chemicals such as DDT. But research in California shows that mosquitoes have developed a resistance to such chemicals, Singer said.

Singer said the chemicals also pose a threat because they accumulate in the creatures that feed on the mosquito larvae, eventually working their way would reflect on the President. Petersen said no."

Or you might have missed your chance to strum a better harp in heaven by buying a drink for a homely girl, but you were curled up with one of Gordon Strachan's penetrating memos: "In the New Mexico Senate race Dave Cargo may cause problems in the G.O.P. primary even though our 1970 candidate for Governor, (Pete V.) Domenici, is the only one who could beat the Democrat, Jack Daniels."

Probably it's a sign of approaching idiocy to become bored with the whole sordid business in the homestretch of the most-covered scandal in American history.

Or maybe it all comes down to the parable of the cream puffs, and the fact that not many of us want to see the man who ended the war, brought home the POWs, and sealed the ententes with old enemies, go to jail.

up the food chain to man.

"That's the reason there's such a danger," he said. "That's a very potent poison."

Singer said he first isolated the bacteria in 1972. He said he has since improved their potency by selective breeding and hopes for commercial production within five years. Tests on the bacteria's effectiveness which began in Nigeria last year will be continued this year, he said. No results have been announced.

The research is being conducted with the assistance of the World Health Organization and grants from the National Science Foundation and Western Illinois University Research Council.

Haig Claims Nixon Won't Quit Office

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Alexander M. Haig Jr., President Nixon's top White House aide, says a month of overseas summitry has reinforced Nixon's determination to stay on the job and continue "the leadership of the past five years."

Interviewed by three reporters Monday at the Western White House, Haig said Nixon returned from trips to the Middle East and the Soviet Union "intellectually and spiritually reinvigorated" despite a taxing schedule that left only three to four hours a day for sleep.

Haig pictured Nixon as ready to focus his energies on the business of government—fighting inflation at home and seeking peace abroad—while delegating day-to-day responsibility for his Watergate defense to his legal team.

He said Nixon is "well on the mend" from a June attack of plebitis and that there is little danger of complications from the blood clot that developed in a vein in Nixon's left leg. He said swelling of the leg, near the ankle, has lessened.

Haig would not respond to questions about Watergate. But Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler insisted Monday that Nixon "is not devoting much of his time to the matter at all."

Haig pictured Nixon as being able to devote more time to reflection at his seaside estate here than back in Washington.

"There is less minute by minute operational pressure," he said. He added that Nixon has taken advantage of the more relaxed environment for "stock-taking at critical junctures." He said he expected Nixon to take advantage of his current stay to block out plans for the months ahead in the area of foreign and economic policy.

Haig said Nixon views his two summit trips as having been "highly successful" and meeting "all the objectives he set for himself."

Two youngsters provided some excitement for firemen and Circleville folk when they turned on the fire alarm at Court and Pleasant Sts. Firemen found their tricycle under the alarm.

City Council was making plans to hire a motorcycle policeman after a lengthy discussion on traffic conditions in the city. An ordinance to provide a motorcycle patrolman several months earlier failed. Police had only two men on duty and one had to remain at the desk.

Council also voted to place the issue of what type of government is best for Circleville before the voters. They were seeking to switch to the charter form of government.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

My daughter and her husband think it is smart to give their two-year old child a taste of their cocktail before dinner. They are proud that my grandchild can distinguish between Scotch and bourbon. How do you feel about this nonsense?

Grandma, Conn.

Dear "Grandma":

I have seen such patterns of pseudo-sophistication in many young people. Fortunately, parents of youngsters usually give up this parlor game before long.

You can be sure that the alcohol-tasting will inevitably be discouraged by the child's doctor.

I agree with you that the practice may have some built-in dangers and that it most certainly should be stopped.

Alcoholism is a very strange disease. How deeply rooted it is in childhood patterns has never been clearly established. You are wise to voice your objection without introducing conflict between you and your children.

My mother-in-law has been told that she has Hashimoto's disease. I noticed, when filling out her Medicare form, her doctor checked "No" in answer to the question, "Is the patient cured?" His answer to me was not clear. We are concerned.

Mrs. J.B., Fla.

Dear Mrs. B.:

Hashimoto's disease, named after the man who described it, is a very special type of disorder of the thyroid gland.

Goiter, an enlargement of the thyroid gland, and lessened activity of the thyroid, or hypothyroidism, are associated with this condition.

The reason that your mother-in-law's doctor said "No" in answer to the printed question is because lifelong treatment is necessary to control this disorder.

There are a number of excellent ways of treating this, with desiccated thyroid and other drugs.

As I often suggest, when there is confusion about any medical problem, open and frank discussion with the doctor is necessary in order to remove anxiety and clarify the problem.

Too Big

By JIM BISHOP

The American people should restudy the office of President of the United States; its power, its restraints, its use and abuse. The popular concept is that the man in the Oval Office is more than a prime minister and less than a king. This is an ironic misconception. The Founding Fathers, having rebelled successfully against a king, were almost unanimous in their desire to create a weak Chief Executive.

They fashioned three regal prisons: one for the President; one for the Congress; one for the Supreme Court. Of the three, the presidency was the most confining because the man in office was not given the power to originate a law. Neither could he conclude a treaty, make war or appoint ranking officers in his own department without the "advise and consent" of one or both arms of the Congress.

The people, it was thought, could best rule themselves by electing local politicians to the House of Representatives. Men like James Madison, Benjamin Franklin, George Washington, John Jay and Alexander Hamilton were determined, through the instrument of the new Constitution, to weaken the presidency to the status of one who executes the will of the people.

They distrusted the President before they found the first one. And yet, when Alexander Hamilton began to write "The Federalist," which is still the best treatise on U.S. government, he felt misgivings about the ability of the people to govern through Congress.

"It is a just observation," he wrote, "that the people commonly INTEND the public good. This often applies to their very errors . . . They know from experience that they sometimes err; and the wonder is that they so seldom err . . ."

The people can and will be fooled by popular parasites who would rather rule the nation than execute the will of the Congress. History shows in stark silhouette that the difference between thieves in Congress and thieves on the street is that the gentlemen under the dome of the Capitol steal in the name of the law.

Except for Franklin Roosevelt, Presidents seldom fight the Supreme Court. He tried to enlarge it; pack it with his own men. He lost. Others, like Dwight Eisenhower, felt that high office was a reward and would rather have resigned than ruled.

When Richard Nixon campaigned against John F. Kennedy in 1960, he favored reducing the power of the President: "We need a President who will resist the temptation to give the appearance of leadership, when actually, his speaking out rashly may set off a chain of circumstances that will be disastrous to the whole world."

Alexander Hamilton went a step further: "... the people are reminded that the person of the President has no more inviolability than the least one of themselves; upon impeachment, trial, conviction and removal from office, he would be liable to prosecution and punishment in the ordinary course of the law."

Thus, almost 200 years ago, it was decided to set up one man who would be elected by all the people and who, if he perpetrated misdeeds, would face double jeopardy — a finding of guilt by the Senate and a second trial for the same offenses in a common court.

And yet the will of the Founding Fathers has been thwarted throughout history. The President has become more and more personally powerful. Almost all of them arrogated to themselves the power to give, and the power to take away.

It is common knowledge that many bills do not originate in the Congress. White House lawyers draw them up on orders from the President. A liaison man carries the perfected product to the Hill, there to hand it to the chairman of a House committee for endorsement or rejection.

I have written five books about Presidents — one will be published in September — but it was Dwight Eisenhower who impressed me with a wry statement: "Do you realize that there are 154 government agencies and bureaus which are responsible to me, not to Congress? Do you know that it is impossible to recall offhand the names of the heads of those agencies, much less what the heck they are doing?"

Year by year, the men in the White House have, in an almost insidious manner, arrogated more and more power to themselves. Each of them did it in the name of patriotism and wrapped himself in the American flag; but each, no matter how wise, was only a solitary man.

The office has grown much too big for anyone . . .

tickets are to be sold, the headquarters office has not been flooded with applications from prospective ticket agents.

When it is in full operation, agents selling tickets stand to realize as much as $6.5 million collectively each year in bonuses.

About 43,000 application forms have been made available across the state, mainly in state liquor stores. About 6,000 forms have been returned, one third of the number expected.

"My objective was to license a minimum of 7,000 to 8,000 sales agents, ideally about 10,000," says John E. Kirkland Jr., lottery director.

In an effort to spur applications commission lawyers have come up with a streamlined form, and the Ohio legislature has contributed a statute permitting ticket sales by holders of liquor, beer and wine permits.

"Our position now is that virtually anyone who applies and has a legitimate business will be licensed," a lottery spokesman says.

Applicants' credit ratings, police records and locations receive a cursory screening, the spokesman says. Final approval is made after a field crew inspects sites for traffic flow and convenience.

Applications could be rejected for "anything more than a routine traffic violation," but commission standards specifically outlaw licensing persons who make a living at gambling, who have violated any lottery commission regulation or who have been found guilty of fraud, the spokesman says.

As a practical matter, the spokesman adds, about half the applications turned in have been approved, and the applicants will be licensed in the next two to three weeks, as fast as clerks can type the papers.

Only about 60 applicants have been turned down, he says.

Agents will be licensed one year at a time to give the commission a chance to review an outlet's performance.

"We will be looking at ticket sales and making judgements," the spokesman said. "We will make the franchise available to someone else in the vicinity if necessary."

Application requires a snapshot of the proposed outlet, and Kirkland believes obtaining the picture may be slowing submissions.

The commission's consultants, Mathematica Inc., blames lack of media coverage for the slow sales. The firm predicted 20,000 merchants would apply.

The director of the state auditor's bureau of inspection, John A. Blum, says some reluctance to handle the tickets may stem from store owners' fears about paying $20 winners from store receipts.

"That store owner doesn't want to get stuck if there's a fraudulent ticket," Blum said.

The auditor's office has objected to the prospect of $500,000 of state funds being paid out across Ohio each week without controls.

Ticket agents are to receive five per cent of their gross sales in addition to bonuses for selling winning tickets. Some merchants say that's not much.

"A lot of people feel it will be too much paper work in view of the fact they'll make only about two cents a ticket," says Russell Fronk, manager of a liquor store in Painesville.

The majority of tavern owners will sell the tickets only as conveniences to their customers, says another.

"You certainly can't make any money on them at five per cent," says Mentor bar owner Paul Chase.

Kirkland disagrees. "Sales agents also will share in the luck of lottery winners," he says.

"Bonuses for selling the millionaire pool winning ticket will be $10,000 with proportionate awards for other major winnings."

Retail stores will profit from offering tickets, he maintains. He says a state survey shows 71 per cent of Ohio adults over age 18 plan to play the lottery.

MR. AND MRS. KEVIN DONALD CORCORAN

Miss Patricia Lou Schein, Kevin Donald Corcoran Wed

Williamsport United Methodist Church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Patricia Lou Schein and Mr. Kevin Donald Corcoran. The Rev. Richard Crosby officiated the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schein, Route 1, Williamsport and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Corcoran, Route 4, Chillicothe, 1:30 p.m., June 15th.

The church was decorated with a single candle and floral arrangement of multi-colored painted daisies, carnations, roses and coral bells centering the altar. Flowers placed in front of the cross were flanked by single tapers. Two decorated candelabra and palms were on either side of the altar table.

Mrs. Gail Wolfe Jr., organist and Mr. Patrick Corcoran, brother of the bridegroom, was guitarist and vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and mother. She selected for her wedding a formal length gown of white organza. The empire bodice with full sleeves featured delicate pink flowers of venise lace around the high neckline, wrists and deep crystal pleated flounce of the skirt. The bride's lace edged mantilla illusion veil held by a lace caplet, flowed softly to cathedral length. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white carnations, deep pink painted daisies, delicate baby pink roses and coral bells, interspersed with touches of deep purple and light blue and tied with pink ribbons. She wore a bit of orange blossom from the mother's wedding gown and carried a lace handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother.

Miss Judy Schein, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in a long gown of light pink, blue and purple floral organza. The empire waistline was accented with pink ribbon and a long trailing bow at the back. The slightly gathered skirt flowed to a flounce at the bottom. The bodice was covered with a delicate cape that formed short sleeves. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a colonial bouquet of multi-

MRS. MICHIAL B. THOMAS

Good Shepherd Church Setting For Wedding

Good Shepherd United Methodist Church was the setting for the 2 p.m., June 23rd, wedding of Miss Drema Darlene Anderson and Mr. Michial B. Thomas. The Rev. Eugene Flowers performed the double ring ceremony for the daughter of Mrs. Gayle Anderson, Route 1, Kingston and the late Gilbert R. Anderson. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Thomas, Route 2, Laurelville.

Mr. Ellery Elick, organist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony.

The altar was decorated with arrangements of white gladioli, mums, baby's breath and two seven branch candelabra and emerald palms.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her former pastor, the Rev. Paul Mercer, who gave her in marriage. She selected for her wedding a formal length gown of white organza. The bodice featured a sheer yoke with scalloped sequined chantilly lace encircling the high neckline, waistline and cuffed the full sheer bishop sleeves. The full skirt swept to a chapel train in a cascade of lace edged ruffles. Her tiered elbow length veil of illusion flowed softly from a cluster of lace petals trimmed with sequins and seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white miniature carnations, pink sweetheart roses, accents of pink lily of valley backed with leather leaf and ivy streamers. Her only jewelry was diamond earrings.

Miss Cheryl Jinks was maid of honor for her cousin. She wore a floor length gown of pink organza. The bodice featured a square neckline and short puffed sleeves and the full skirt was encircled with a deep ruffled hemline. She carried an umbrella basket filled with orchid carnations and baby's breath.

Summer Buffet

Cold sliced meats, rolls, French tomatoes, potato puffs, ice cream cake, beverage.

French Tomatoes

Repeated on request.
8 medium tomatoes (2½ pounds)
¼ cup olive oil
1 large onion, chopped (1 cup)
2 cloves garlic, minced
1¼-pound eggplant, peeled and cubed (½ inch)
Two 8-inch long zucchini, unpeeled and cubed (½ inch)
2 medium green peppers, cut in thin strips

1 teaspoon oregano
Salt and pepper to taste
Cut a thin slice from stem end of each tomato; scoop out pulp, saving juice. Invert tomatoes and refrigerate. In a 10-in skillet heat oil; add tomato pulp and juice and remaining ingredients except the tomato cases. Simmer uncovered, turning vegetables over several times, until they are tender and almost all liquid has evaporated. Cover and chill. At serving time, spoon vegetable mixture into tomato cases; some of the mixture may be leftover to serve "as is." Makes 8 servings. (Add 1 teaspoon salt and ½ teaspoon pepper at beginning of vegetable cooking and more if necessary after mixture has chilled.)

Family Dinner

Hamburgers, potatoes, corn with onions, fruit, cookies.

Corn With Onions

Savory combination.
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 medium onions, peeled and cut into thin strips (2 cups)
½ green pepper cut into thin strips (½ cup)
12-ounce can whole-kernel corn, drained
¼ teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste
1 teaspoon (or more) diced canned pimiento
In a 10-inch skillet melt butter; add onion; cook, covered and stirring often, over moderate heat until onion is transparent — about 5 minutes. Add remaining ingredients; cover and cook, stirring a few times, until corn is hot — about 5 minutes longer. Makes 6 servings.

OGS Begins Cemetery Project

The Ohio Genealogical Society will publish a book of all known burials as a part of its contribution to the Bicentennial of the American Revolution. This book will list all public and private burial sites by county and township.

The text will not include gravestone inscriptions but will identify all known cemeteries, the location of the cemetery records and if the records have been copied where copies can be obtained.

The Society plans to include all large cemeteries, single burials, family plots, re-located cemeteries and cemeteries that have disappeared through the years. The location of the large public cemeteries is fairly easy. However, persons knowing of a single grave, a small burying ground, cemeteries not on the county map, or other "forgotten" hard to find burials please contact Mrs. C. W. Caudy, 6480 E. Elizabeth Bethel Rd., Tipp City, Ohio 45371. Mrs. Caudy is an OGS volunteer who is working on the project for Pickaway County. There is no remuneration for information but help in making this project complete would be appreciated.

Pastor Zehner Honored By Trinity Congregation

Carl G. Zehner, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, was honored Sunday on the 20th anniversary of his installation. Dr. T. J. Liefeld, Vice-President of the Evangelical Lutheran Theological Seminary in Columbus, was the guest speaker.

The Zehners and Liefelds have been close friends for 30 years. Most of the arrangements had been kept secret from Pastor Zehner until the last few days. The altar flowers were provided by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cross, in honor of the Zehners.

Special music included two numbers sung by the children of the Primary Department. Alice Mills directed them in singing "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing", and "It's a Small World". Mrs. Mildred Weller, superintendent of the Primary Department, presented Mrs. Zehner with an arm bouquet of 20 red carnations, from the children, to show their love and appreciation.

Mrs. Donald Partee sang a solo, "Faith Unlocks The Door" at both early and late services. The adult choir, which had been called together especially for the occasion, sang, "I Love the Church" and "God, My King". Fred Brobst directed.

In his sermon, Dr. Liefeld pointed out that although we loved our pastor and were honoring him for his many contributions to our church and community, it was really God, working in and through him, who deserves the thanks. He also emphasized that Evangelism is not just the business of a pastor but should be the work of every church member.

As a more tangible evidence of the love and appreciation of the members of Trinity, Carl Leist, president of the congregation, read an original poem which he had composed, and then presented the Zehners with two albums, crammed full of notes, letters and cards of thanks and tribute. A long, hand lettered and illustrated scroll was unrolled and read, depicting the milestones of importance during the past 20 years at Trinity. A small pocket in the bottom of the scroll contained a check for $2,100, representing the total contributions from the members as a gift for the Zehners. This is to be used as they wish.

The albums and the scroll were the work of Virginia Hulse, as was a big bulletin placed over the regular bulletin board in the front of the church.

Following the service, the Zehners and family, Chris & John Billings &

Jeni and Carl Jr.) and Liefelds were guests of the church at a dinner at Pickaway Arms. Others present were officers of the congregation and their wives, committee chairmen, and others who had helped with planning and carrying out the celebration. Centerpiece was a large three tiered anniversary cake, gift of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Lindsey. The top layer was given to Mrs. Zehner to take home.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Call The Cops

DEAR ABBY: We've lived in this nice family neighborhood for fifteen years. Last September, our next-door neighbors rented their house to a group of long-haired hippies. Several young men and women are living together there, and I'm sure they aren't married.

Abby, I don't have anything against hippies, but I am worried about my children. I've tried to give them a good moral upbringing. Just yesterday I caught my teen-age son peering through the fence that separates our backyards, and sure enough, one of the girls was sunbathing completely naked!

My husband and I can't agree on what to do. I say we should call the police to protect our children, who are at an impressionable age. My husband thinks we should leave well enough alone. What do you think?

MENLO PARK MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: I vote with your husband. And tell your son to quit "peering" through the fence, or your neighbors might justifiably feel their privacy is being violated, and THEY will call the police.

DEAR ABBY: I was chatting with my nephew in a very crowded and noisy room. (A cocktail party was in progress.) I had to ask him to please repeat nearly everything he said not only because of the noise but this nephew has a bad habit of mumbling.

Finally he shouted: "Dammit, Aunt, if you're deaf, why don't you get yourself a hearing aid?"
I am 77 and he is 36.

The following morning I went to my attorney's office and cut this nephew out of my will.

One hundred dollars to a charity of your choice, Abby, if you print this in your Los Angeles Times. My nephew never misses your column.

LOVING AUNT
DEAR AUNT: When they come around to collect for the Cancer Crusade, give them an extra hundred for me.

DEAR ABBY: It's 4:30 a.m. and I'm so mad I can't go back to sleep. It seems my brother-in-law, Joe, is making a habit of spending the night on our couch.

His reason for staying here is that he is too drunk to drive home. He totaled his pickup two months ago after one of his drinking sprees.

My husband thinks I'm selfish for not wanting Joe here. I disagree. I feel this house is half mine and I should be able to get up and go into the living room in the middle of the night without worrying about someone seeing me half nude. I'm eight months pregnant, so I get up a lot, and I don't like to put my robe on each time.

I think if Joe wants to get plastered he should make other sleeping arrangements. (Like a motel) What should I do? Grin and bear it for my husband's sake? Or tell Joe how I feel? I'm afraid if Joe got killed driving home, my husband would blame me.

HAD IT WITH JOE
DEAR HAD IT: If Joe comes to your house plastered, ask your husband to escort him home. Drunk drivers kill not only themselves they kill innocent people.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "UPTIGHT IN PHILLY": You're angry, and with good reason, but you need to learn how to handle your anger. Pick up a copy of ANGER by Leo Madow. It's a great little paperback book written by a psychiatrist who writes in language everyone can understand.

Luken Demands Probe Of LSH

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Rep. Thomas A. Luken, D-Ohio, called for a Justice Department investigation into the death of a patients' rights activist at Lima State Hospital June 7.

Officials of the hospital for the criminally insane said that Freddie L. Bobbs Jr., 36, of Cincinnati, apparently hanged himself.

Hospital officials were unavailable for comment on Luken's request for an investigation.

Luken made the request by letter to Michael Lottman, deputy director of the U.S. Department of Justice Civil Rights Office of Institutions and Facilities.

Luken, in the letter released here Tuesday, said he was concerned about the death for several reasons.

He noted that:

—Bobbs, in a letter June 2 to Mrs. Cheryl Grant, an attorney, said he was in need of help. He asked her to contact his family. She is also an administrative aide to Luken.

—Bobbs' family told Luken they felt Bobbs was too weak from hunger to hang himself. He had not eaten for two weeks prior to his death. Mrs. Dorsha Bobbs, his mother, contends the death "was not of his own doing."

—Bobbs had told his parents he feared he would be poisoned if he ate hospital food. Bobbs had complained medicine administered to him gave him abdominal pains.

—William White, Bobbs' attorney, complained of difficulty in being admitted to see his client in May.

Muni Court Sentences Escapee

Robert W. Shaffer, Columbus, reportedly an escapee from the Columbus workhouse, appeared Tuesday in Municipal Court on two charges filed in Pickaway County. Shaffer waived a preliminary hearing before acting judge Lemuel B. Weldon on a charge of aggravated burglary and pleaded no contest on the second charge of resisting arrest.

The court bound Shaffer to the grand jury under a $1,000 bond on the burglary charge and fined him $50 and costs on the lesser charge. The acting judge also specified the balance of the fine and costs would be suspended when the Columbus Police Department assumes custody of Shaffer on the escape charge.

Police Officer Shot Down In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — More than 100 policemen combed Cincinnati's near north side early today for three men wanted in connection with the shooting of a 24-year-old patrolman.

Police said Patrolman David Cole was shot while pursuing three men he surprised while they were burglarizing the United Farmers store in the city's Peebles Corner area.

Cole's body was found shortly before 1 a.m. about a half-block from the store.

Police said Cole's gun was found near his body with four shots fired. They said there was a chance he was shot with his own gun.

According to authorities, Cole was shot at least twice and possibly three times.

Police said Cole was the first officer to arrive at the store after a radio call went out that a woman had reported a robbery in progress.

Cole's father, James was also a Cincinnati policeman and worked as a dispatcher. The elder Cole was on vacation this week.

The younger Cole joined the force in 1959 as a cadet and became a patrolman in 1972.

He was married, but had no children.

Dizzy Dean Succumbs

RENO, Nev. (AP) — Dizzy Dean, an Arkansas farm boy who pitched his way into baseball's Hall of Fame with a blazing fastball, winning the admiration of millions with a downhome twang and zest for life that sometimes made managers pale, died early today. He was 64.

Dean, who with his brother Paul formed a feared pitching duo for the "Gashouse Gang" St. Louis Cardinals in the 1930s, died at St. Mary's Hospital, two days after suffering a severe heart attack.

Dizzy Dean, a former migratory cotton picker who claimed he only went through the second grade, was one of baseball's great pitchers. But he might have reached much greater heights if an injury had not destroyed his effectiveness at age 27, when he should have only begun to reach his peak.

He was perhaps baseball's most eccentric character since the days of Rube Waddell, early in the 20th century.

Waddell sometimes called in all the outfielders in exhibitions, then struck out the side. Dizzy preferred to fill the bases, then fan the side. He also was known to break curfew and other rules on occasion.

He was a big right-hander who had a blazing fast ball and bragged about it. He used to tell the hitters when the fast ball was coming, then fire it past them. He struck out 17 batters in one game—then a record—and led the National League in strikeouts four straight years.

He won 30 games and lost only seven in pitching the St. Louis Cardinals to the National League championship and World Series title against Detroit in 1934. No National League pitcher has reached the 30-game victory plateau since. His brother Paul, constantly referred to by Dizzy as "me 'n Paul," won 19. Dizzy won two World Series games; Paul won the other two.

In one of baseball's amazing feats, Dizzy pitched nine times in 19 days during the Cardinals' 1934 pennant drive and continuing into the World Series. He was voted the National League's Most Valuable Player that year.

Dizzy's career was cut short when he was hit on the toe by a line drive from the bat of Earl Averill in the 1937 All-Star Game. The injury changed his pitching motion, which subsequently hurt his arm and forced him to depend on curves instead of the fast ball.

That proved to be Dizzy's downfall as a pitcher.

From a 30-7 record in 1934, 28-12 in 1935 and 24-13 in 1936, Dean slipped to 13-10 in 1937. Sold to the Chicago Cubs for $185,000 and three players in 1938, he helped the Cubs to the 1938 pennant with a 7-1 record and started one game in the World Series against the New York Yankees.

His career actually ended after a 3-3 record with the Cubs in 1940, except for one game in 1947 with the old St. Louis Browns when he had become a baseball radio announcer. He said he had become a sports "commutator."

In his brief career, Dean won 150 games in the major leagues, including 27 shutouts, and lost 83. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1953.

Stories about Dizzy Dean became baseball legend; in the retelling the exact quotes attributed to him often changed.

Dizzy was born Jan. 16, 1911, but there were conflicting reports on his full name and place of birth. Some years ago, Dizzy said his name was Jay Hannah Dean and not Jerome Herman Dean.

The St. Louis Cardinals signed Dizzy after he left the Army—"That's where I got my first pair of shoes"—and in less than a year he had a tryout in the majors, in 1930 at the age of 19.

But he was sent back to the minors for more seasoning. Arriving back with the Houston farm team in the Texas League, Dizzy went straight to the ball park and called the rival manager: "Say, this is Dizzy Dean. Yep, back in town and I can hear you gnashing your teeth, brother. Just thought I would call and tell you that I am gonna pitch against your ball club this afternoon and hold them to two or three hits."

He allowed two. Before Branch Rickey brought him up to the majors for good in 1932, Dizzy won 26 games and lost 10 for Houston in 1931.

2-Year-Olds Trot For $16,450 At SD

Seventeen outstanding two-year-old trotters kick off the Scarlet and Gray Cup Series at Scioto Downs Thursday night going for a total purse of $16,450.

The large entry forced the race into two divisions. The first, racing for a purse of $8,175, is scheduled for the fifth race and the nine-horse second division with a purse of $8,275 is scheduled to go postward in the ninth race on the 10-race card.

As usual, the second division is the tougher of the two divisions, and the World Champion two-year-old trotting gelding over a five-eighths mile track, Excellent Tad, is the slight early morning line choice. Owned by Joe Cowden, Ed Crider, and Chuck Hawley, of Medina, Ohio, this bay son of Lincoln Land Tad, raised by an Amish farmer in northern Ohio, zipped to the world record on July 4th at Scioto in 2:06, knocking four-fifths of a second off the former world mark. Trained and driven by George Mueller, Excellent Tad is undefeated in seven starts this year.

Second choice in the second division is Dotty Coaltown, the brisk brown daughter of B.F. Coaltown, owned by George Alber of Marion, Ohio, and very capably driven by the veteran Bob Cheney. Up until Dotty Coaltown met Excellent Tad in the July 4th Challenge Stakes, she had racked up five straight wins.

Rated high in the pre-race consideration are a pair of finely tuned juveniles, Quentin Hill from the stable of Dick Williams, the Richmond, Ind., reinsman who broke Gene Riegler's stranglehold on the leading driver title last week, and Bay Colony from the Bruce Nickell's stable.

Anytime a field of two-year-old trotters get together, you will find, one of the true trotting horse men in the business, Howard Beissinger.

The Hamilton, Ohio sulkymaster has a two horse stable entry in each division. In the second division, Beissinger has Speed Ayre and Richthofen. Speed Ayre is a son of the 1964 Hambletonian winner, Ayres, owned by Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Otto of Camden, Ohio. Richthofen, a son of the great Nevele Pride, was named by his owner, Joe Mendelson of Palo Verde, Calif., after the famed German fighter pilot of World War One, Baron Von Richthofen.

Gene Riegler has the bright young B.F. Coaltown colt, Blackjack Parlay for the Koehler Brothers stable of Findlay, Ohio, Frank Todd Sr., has Rightly Surprised, and Dave Jones has the Black Mission filly, Perfect Mission to complete the second division.

In the first division, the Howard Beissinger stable entry of The Last Hurrah, and Speed To Cash are the early morning line co-choices. Speed To Cash, owned by the Messenger Stable of Golf, Ill., was guided to victory in the first division of the Challenge Stakes by Joe O'Brien on July 4th, clocked in 2:11 4-5 in the rain. The Last Hurrah, owned by Garrett Claypool of Chillicothe, Ohio, owns a victory in 2:12 4-5 at Scioto.

Another Challenge Stakes division winner, Gayn, is the co-choice in the first division of the Scarlet and Gray Cup. Owned by Hawley Todd of Miami, Ohio, Gayn out-trotted the favored LaPride Hanover in the Challenge Stakes to post his victory in 2:09 4-5.

Bruce Nickells has a top contender in this division in Border Lights, owned by Ulf Berner of Blomstermala, Sweden. Assistant driver Bud Davis will be subbing for Joe O'Brien behind Claypool Hanover, Paul Norris has May Pilot, Ralph Lunsford will go with his Big John colt, Shadow Warrior, and Dave Wenzell has Society Coaltown to complete the first division field.

Battle Lines Drawn In Players Strike

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The battle lines have been drawn. The date is July 27, the site Canton, Ohio.

That is when the annual Hall of Fame Game will be played between the St. Louis Cardinals and Buffalo Bills, and that is when a major confrontation will take place between the striking National Football League Players Association and the club owners.

Meanwhile, there were indications Tuesday from both sides that negotiations might be resumed later this week, and the first major rift in the striking NFLPA's facade appeared at the camp of the Cincinnati Bengals.

The NFL Management Council, bargaining agent for the 26 club owners, reaffirmed Tuesday that all exhibition games will be played—even if that means lineups composed of rookies, free agents and the handful of veterans who have crossed picket lines.

And the first of those exhibition games in the Hall of Fame contest at Canton.

The NFLPA has said that it would take steps to see that the exhibition games are not played until a settlement in the dispute is reached. That presumably means a picket line of veterans.

The Canton game is the only one still scheduled for the opening week of exhibition play, since the July 26

College All-Star Game has already been scratched.

St. Louis Coach Don Coryell said he would double up on drills to get his players ready for the exhibition game. But Buffalo star O.J. Simpson, who spent one day walking the NFLPA picket line, said he was going back to his home in California and will remain there until the strike is settled.

Meanwhile, spokesmen for federal mediator James Scearce and the two sides indicated that they might soon return to the bargaining table, perhaps before the weekend.

"Both sides now are ready to sit down and discuss the issues," Bill Curry, president of the NFLPA, said. "I think we would be foolish if we couldn't sit down and work out an agreement."

The NFLMC said Tuesday that at least 77 veterans were in camp in defiance of the picket lines. By comparison, only 21 veterans were in camp on the final day of the 1970 NFLPA strike, according to the management group. Many of the veterans in camp, however, are marginal players whose status is far from certain.

One place where the strike appeared to be breaking down was at the Cincinnati Bengals camp in Wilmington, Ohio, where the 30 players on hand, including 13 veterans, voted unanimously Tuesday against meeting with NFLPA officials and it appeared that other Bengals veterans were ready to join the experienced players already in camp.

Reds Crush Cardinals

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

The Los Angeles Dodgers hold a commanding lead in the National League West pennant race—but the Cincinnati Reds hold the psychological advantage. That's Sparky Anderson's opinion, anyway.

"I'll be honest, I don't think they'll ever stop thinking of us," Anderson said Tuesday night after his Reds beat the St. Louis Cardinals 12-7. "They want us so far back of them, it's pitiful."

Right now, the Reds are 6 1/2 games behind the Dodgers because Los Angeles lost an 8-7 decision to the Montreal Expos Tuesday night. Anderson remembers when his team was 10 1/2 games behind not too long ago.

"If we start scoring runs, like I've said, we've got a shot at it," Anderson said. "We had one streak not too long ago when we hit .210 for 28 games."

The Dodgers' latest loss was their fourth in five games and their lead is now their smallest since June 29.

In the other National League games, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Houston Astros 6-2; the Chicago Cubs tripped the Atlanta Braves 7-2; the San Diego Padres turned back the Philadelphia Phillies 5-4 and the San Francisco Giants routed the New York Mets 9-4.

Expos 8, Dodgers 7

Willie Davis' fifth hit tied the game in the ninth inning and Ken Singleton produced the game-winner with a sacrifice fly, giving Montreal a wild victory over Los Angeles.

Davis singled home pinch runner Boots Day and sent Larry Lintz to third base. Singleton then drove a sacrifice fly off reliever Charlie Hough for the game-winner.

Pirates 6, Astros 2

Jim Rooker scattered eight hits and Ed Kirkpatrick drove in a pair of runs with a basesloaded single to key Pittsburgh's victory over Houston.

Kirkpatrick's two-run single off loser Larry Dierker, 6-5, came in the third inning when Pittsburgh scored four runs to erase a 2-1 deficit.

Cubs 7, Braves 2

Billy Williams lashed a double and two singles and drove in two runs, leading Chicago over Atlanta. The Cubs, beating Atlanta for the eighth time in 11 games this season, knocked out starter Roric Harrison, 6-11, with four runs on six hits in the first two innings.

Padres 5, Phillies 4

Bobby Tolan's run-scoring single capped a wild ninth-inning rally that featured three straight homers and gave San Diego its victory over Philadelphia.

Giants 9, Mets 4

Two-run triples by Chris Arnold and Garry Maddox highlighted a six-run, fifth-inning explosion that powered San Francisco over New York.

AL All-Star Pitching Staff Gets Ready

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Los Angeles Dodger right-handers Andy Messersmith, 10-2, and reliever Mike Marshall, 11-4, were among eight National League pitchers named today by Manager Yogi Berra for next Tuesday's All-Star baseball game at Pittsburgh.

Only Messersmith and Philadelphia left-hander Steve Carlton, 11-7, have been on previous All-Star squads. Messersmith was on the 1971 American League team but did not pitch. Carlton pitched in the 1968, 1969 and 1972 games and got credit for a 9-3 victory in 1969.

Other selections by Berra, the New York Met manager, were left-handers Ken Brett of Pittsburgh, 11-6, and Jon Matlack of New York, 8-6, and right-handers Buzz Capra of Atlanta, 9-4, Lynn McGlothen of St. Louis, 12-5, and Steve Rogers of Montreal, 10-10.

Marshall, at 31 the oldest of the NL All-Star pitching choices, has appeared in 61 games and set a major league record by pitching in 13 straight from June 18 to July 3. The former Montreal reliever has 13 saves and an earned-run average of 2.39 for 113 innings.

Messersmith, 28, and Carlton, 29, are among the league leaders in strikeouts. Messersmith's ERA is 1.96 and Carlton's 3.11.

Cleveland Browns Add 2 More Players

HIRAM, Ohio (AP)—The Cleveland Browns have added two more players as they try to put together a team to face the Los Angeles Rams in their exhibition opener Aug. 2.

The Browns signed running back Jerry Hall of Warren, Ohio and linebacker Peter Stracci from Washington & Jefferson as free agents Tuesday.

Fight Mars Brewers-Twins Tilt

By FRED ROTHENBERG
AP Sports Writer

Tens of players spilled onto the field, paired off in half a dozen skirmishes and traded lots of punches in Milwaukee, after the Brewers' Bob Coluccio, target of a brushback pitch, was hit in the head.

The excitement in Milwaukee began when Coluccio came up to the plate in the seventh inning after striking singles in his three previous at bats. Ray Corbin was on the mound for Minnesota. One of Corbin's pitches struck Coluccio, dropping him to the dirt and knocking his helmet 10 feet away.

"I was just trying to brush him back," Corbin said after the Brewers edged the Twins 5-4. "Certainly, I'm sorry about what happened."

Elsewhere in the American League, the California Angels routed the Cleveland Indians 11-2; the Oakland A's nipped the Baltimore Orioles 4-3; the New York Yankees blanked the Texas Rangers 2-0; the Kansas City Royals shaded the Boston Red Sox 5-4 and the Chicago White Sox downed the Detroit Tigers 6-0.

Coluccio was knocked unconscious for several moments, but was able to leave the field under his own power. He was taken to the hospital for precautionary X rays.

A's 4, Orioles 3

Rollie Fingers is getting back to basics—his fastball.

Fingers, the bullpen ace of the defending world champions, preserved Oakland's victory over Baltimore, notching his seventh save after replacing Ken Holtzman in the eighth inning, displaying fast and effective relief work.

Angels 11, Indians 2

After 10 straight losses under new manager Dick Williams, California has won five of its last six, including the Angels' romp over Cleveland.

The big hitter Tuesday night was Joe Lahoud, with a pair of two-run homers in support of Frank Tanana's six-inning relief stint.

Royals 5, Red Sox 4

After some early trouble, Steve Busby made a lot of good pitches.

Busby's manager then made a good pitch of his own.

"If Buzz is left off the All-Star team, the American League has made a mistake," said Kansas City Manager Jack McKeon.

Yankees 2, Rangers 0

George "Doc" Medich continued his recent domination over Texas.

Medich tossed a five-hitter and Sandy Alomar and Bobby Murcer drove in third-inning runs off 19-year-old David Clyde, leading New York past Texas.

White Sox 6, Tigers 0

Chicago had more home runs than Detroit had hits. Dick Allen, with a three-run homer, Bill Melton, with a two-run shot, and Brian Downing, with a solo blast took care of the homers.

Jim Kaat took care of the Tigers, allowing one-out singles to Mickey Stanley in the third and Jerry Moses in the eighth in coasting to his sixth straight victory.

Captain Ed Westfall of the New York Islanders won the 1964 Charlie Conacher Cancer Research Award for his outstanding contributions with the mentally retarded.

Westfall Board Reviews Middle School Plans; Adopts Budget

Preliminary schematic drawings of the new middle school were presented to the Westfall Board of Education at its regular monthly meeting Monday night. Representatives from the architect and the Contract Management Company were present at the meeting with two sets of plans for the new school.

The board made the selection of one of the blueprints and directed the architect to proceed with a more detailed drawing.

Since Monday's meeting was also the time set aside for the public budget hearing, the board reviewed the budget for the 1975 calendar year. Approval was made of the budget as presented with a total expenditure allocation in the general fund of $1,437,291.

The board also adopted the revised policy statement on eligibility of needy children for free and reduced price lunches. Copies of the income schedule and applications for the lunch program will be given to each student during the first few days of the school term.

Inspection of the boilers in all the schools in the district was made by the Continental Insurance Company and a report was presented to the board stating they were all in good condition. The normal cleaning and treatment of all equipment was recommended by the inspectors.

A resolution was passed authorizing Westfall participation in the multi-school district plan for support purposes in the sharing of a speech and hearing consultant. The schools in the program will also share the expenses which exceed the state reimbursement.

Mine Walkout Over New Bill Comes To End

COSHOCTON, Ohio (AP) — More than 2,000 eastern Ohio strip mine workers began returning to work early today, following a 24-hour walkout to protest a proposed federal strip mine reclamation law.

Carl Evans, president of United Mine Workers Local 1365 at the Broken Arrow Coal Co. near Coshocton, said he received a telegram from the union's district office Tuesday ordering him to "get the men back to work."

Evans noted that the wildcat walkout was only intended to last 24 hours.

"We had already planned to go back to work," he said.

Strip mine employees said they walked out Monday night to protest the proposed federal strip mine bill which is scheduled for a vote in the U.S. House this week.

The federal bill was endorsed by UMW executive board late last week. International union officials said Monday night that they were against the walkout claiming the miners didn't "understand" the bill.

Evans said he feels union officials will "come around to the miners side" if there is another walkout.

"If they want to get re-elected they have to support the men, not the legislature," Evans said.

If adopted, the bill would establish federal control over surface coal mining and would require strict land reclamation.

UMW President Arnold Miller contends the bill would make mines in Ohio and other states with tough reclamation laws more competitive with mines in states with weaker standards.

Many union members, however, say they fear the bill will abolish strip mining by forcing mining companies into bankruptcy.

Pair Jailed In Kidnap

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Two Dayton, Ohio, youths remained in jail under $25,000 bond after they were bound over to a federal grand jury Tuesday on charges of kidnaping a Golf Manor, Ohio, couple July 9 and taking their car.

The boys, aged 16 and 17, entered no pleas at the hearing. They are held in the Kenton County Juvenile Center.

The pair were accused of forcing their way into the car of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Steinberg at a furniture store parking lot near Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Fairborn.

The Steinbergs said one of the boys indicated he had a gun in his shirt sleeve. No weapon was found.

The couple was released unharmed in Covington's Devon Park unharmed. The youths were apprehended later the same day in Boone County.

2 Men Under Arrest For Selling 'Pot'

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Two Anderson Township men, Edward Evans, 30, and Daniel R. Smith, 24, were arrested Tuesday after allegedly selling 15 pounds of marijuana to undercover police agents for $2,100. The marijuana had a street value of $5,000, police said.

Both were charged with sale of an hallucinogen. Smith was also charged with felonious assault for allegedly pointing a rifle at officers.

Authorization was given to the First National Bank of Circleville to invest bond proceeds of $1,650,000 in certificates of deposit or government bonds at the best possible rate of interest for a period of 30 to 33 days. Frank A. Gans and James H. Fosnaugh, representatives from the bank quoted rates ranging from 8 1/2 to 12 3/4 per cent depending on the market on the particular day the investments were made.

The remaining portion of the bond issue amounting to $20,000 is to be deposited in the building fund to meet current bills pertaining to the new building program. Bond money will be received by the district prior to July 26.

Resignations from the following certificated staff members were accepted by the board: Barbara Distelhorst, James James, James Beery, Deborah Niemeyer, Carolyn Tadlock, Cynthia Clum, Bernice Hulse, Peggy Trego, Mary Jane Benson and Georgine Gorman.

Reasons stated by the ten resigning teachers were retirement, additional family responsibilities, relocation and scholarship acceptance for further degree work.

The following teachers were employed for the 1974-75 school year: Don Galbraith, educable mentally retarded classes at Jackson Elementary; Sharon Neff, elementary; Jeff Tracy, high school industrial arts; Steven Ryerson, junior high social studies and English; Judy Lynn Tredmore, intensive instruction classes at Jackson.

The board also employed Mrs. Mary Gillispie, Route 3, as a bus driver and Mrs. Ginger Beard, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, as a secretary at Darby Elementary.

A policy complying with Section 3307.01 of the Ohio Revised Code was adopted by the board which will make payments to the retirement system on a July 1 to June 30 basis instead of the previous method of payments on a Sept. 1 to Aug. 31 basis.

The meeting was continued for completion of unfinished business until 8 p.m. Aug. 5.

Middletown Gardener Found Electrocuted

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Middletown Hospital officials said Tuesday that a local gardener was apparently electrocuted by an electric hedge trimmer Monday.

John E. "Peanut" Taylor, 46, was found dead in a small pool of water near Memorial Park.

Ferguson Raps Lease Of 2 Autos

SANDUSKY, Ohio (AP) — Two state lottery commission officials came under attack Tuesday from Deputy State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson.

Ferguson accused them of excessive spending in the leasing of two cars. Speaking at a luncheon meeting of the Sandusky Exchange Club, Ferguson said his office has refused to authorize payments for cars leased by Lottery Commission Director John E. Kirkland and Deputy Director James Dickerson.

The deputy auditor said a car leased by Kirkland cost $1,653.90. Ferguson called the amount "ridiculous."

Ferguson said the car was leased for 57 days and was driven 4,566 miles.

Ferguson also criticized Dickerson, who he said leased a car for 24 days at a cost of $561.15. Ferguson claimed Dickerson drove the car 1,021 miles at 56 cents a mile — "a ridiculously high figure when you consider that state employees are entitled only to 12 cents per mile for driving their own cars on state business," he added.

Williamsport News

By EILEEN EASTERDAY, PHONE 986-3481

While clods like me are being devastated by the nasty old heat there are those from our town who are having a downright exotic vacation on the paradise island of Hawaii. Dee Dee Clark, Tina Barthen and Jan Long boarded a jet at Port Columbus last Thursday a.m. and winged away for a dream time with the glories of Hawaii theirs to conquer.

They will be the house guests of Capt. Darrell and Carol Long and their daughters Natalie and Deanna. Darrell is a son of Homer and Alma Long and Carol is a daughter of Clark and Ruth Maughmer, all Pickaway Countians.

Dallas and Clarabelle Valentine and their pretty one Shara Lee are home from their annual fishing vacation at Rice Lake, Canada and pleased with the nice catch they made this time of bass, pickerel, perch and panfish (much larger but similar to our bluegill). The Valentines travel by self-contained camper and experienced no gasoline problems. Rice Lake is near to Peterborough.

Oops! My goofs are hanging out all over the place again — when I wrote last week about the Mt. Gilead Roger Beck family having Sunday dinner at the Thompsons I failed to add that Luther and Hattie Anderson were also dinner guests. The Andersons are Marvie baby's grandparents and my good neighbors.

Leo Anderson or Roundtown was in our village one day last week visiting with the Luther Andersons and the Marvin Thompsons.

Thursday was quite a day for this gal because I made my "debut" on radio so to speak. A new dimension has been added to our town in that WNRE will be broadcasting the second and fourth Thursdays of each month from a location here in Williamsport with Rick Sabine and yours truly holding down the fort.

Last week we broadcast from Oesterle's Inc. and on July 25 we will be at Elinor's Restaurant. One of the highlights of this program will be to have Mrs. Fred Tipton talk a bit on the history of our village. Broadcast time is 2 p.m. until 3 p.m. Any suggestions are gladly welcomed so give me a call.

Appearing on last week's radio show were Carlos Canales and Francisco Amezcua both exchange students from Mexico. It was a special delight for us Easterdays to have Carlos and Francisco was with the Thompsons. Both boys are spending July and August with Mrs. Mary Catherine McDevitt and her Brenda, Karen and J.P. of near Hargus Lake.

Bonnie Long is on leave from her registered nursing duties at Athens O'Brien Hospital and is on a 40-day tour of our western United States. With the Delphi Teen Tour she is serving as a nurse on the tour and will be everywhere seeing everything the west has to offer until August 15. The tour originated out of New York City on July 6.

A small wedding with members of the immediate families attending is the plan of Miss Kimberly Sue Kingery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Kingery, Route 2, Williamsport, and Mr. Steve Rigby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon Rigby, of Williamsport. The couple will repeat their vows on August 3 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Zborek of Williamsport with the Rev. Norval Shepard officiating.

The bride-to-be plans to attend the Pickaway-Ross Vocational School this fall. Her fiancé is a 1971 graduate of Westfall High School and is an employee of Quality Farm and Fleet at Circleville.

Anyone interested in acquiring a pet? Ken and Sherry Horsch are anxious to find a good home for a nice medium sized, brown, white and black dog that strayed to their home. Just give them a call at 986-6472.

Summer is the time for getting together and that's how it was for Ken Horsch and his buddy Philip Linville. Ken went to Columbus last week and spent a couple of days with Philip and then both boys came to Ken's home for a couple of days.

Philip had the extra added fun of renewing friendships with many other young fellows while here since the Linvilles were residents in our town for a few years when daddy Ed served as pastor of the United Methodist Church before being assigned to Burgess Ave. U.M. Church.

John Hooks reminds one and all that his euchre games are still going strong on alternate Friday evenings at the American Legion Hall located just behind the Pavilion here in our village. Next game will be this Friday, beginning at 8 p.m.

Have you sent a card to Patrick Boch, Grant Hospital, Columbus, yet? If not, please do so because it would mean so much to this young man who was so seriously injured in a motorcycle accident a couple of weeks ago.

Mrs. Robert (Margaret) Barnes was hostess to a reception for her new daughter-in-law Mrs. Robert (Jan) Barnes, Friday afternoon at the lovely country home of the senior Barneses. Approximately 50 guests enjoyed making the acquaintance of the pert and pretty Jan.

It has been a joyful household at the Barnes abode because arriving about a month ago was daughter Virginia (Mrs. Wilson) Lehman and her Dawn and Larry from Arvada, Col.

Mr. Lehman was here on weekends since he was in Indianapolis during the month on business. The Lehman family visited with assorted relatives and friends during their time here.

One outstanding event was a reunion of 1959 Williamsport grads and their families with Virginia and Evelyn Kaiser putting it all together at the Barnes home.

Also here for the weekend were Walt and Ann Barnes Packer and Sharon, David and little four-week-old Michelle of Mt. Vernon. Tiny, precious Michelle arrived into this world just one week before Uncle Bobby's wedding date and was without doubt the youngest wedding guest attending.

Sarah Barnes of Troy who has her own pre-school child development program at Troy was at home for the reception Friday and returned to her fair city on Saturday. Ruth (Mrs. Nathan) Wilson, one of the Barnes daughters, of near Circleville completed the family picture.

Margaret's sister, Mrs. Max S. Bigham and her daughter-in-law Mrs. Sam Bigham of Westerville had a part in the day's fun, too.

Whatever you do please tarry no longer about getting a get-well card in the mail for Vanessa Long, University Hospital, Columbus. Vanessa has undergone surgery — is very, very ill and needs all the morale boosting we can give her. While you are at it put a card in the mail for Vanessa's mom, Mrs. Lois (Eldon) Long who is also a patient at University Hospital.

My heart aches for this family who has certainly had more than their share of serious illness. Vanessa will enter her junior year at Westfall this fall if health permits. So, come on, all you Westfall boys and girls and parents and all you readers wherever you may be and get those cards mailed Today!

Some kind of bug has been flying around our corner and affected Harry Puffinbarger and our Amy this weekend. Both of them experienced high fever, aches and tummy upsets and in addition Amy is bothered with an uncomfortable sore throat. The hot weather is enough, why should people be sick, too.

Kathryn Steinhauser of near Clarksburg started her GE vacation with a whopper of a family get together on Sunday at her home. Her brothers, sisters and all their offspring for a couple of generations or so were the invited guests. Being a part of it all from our community were Herschel (brother) and Mae Litter. I understand there were something like 51 present (and there were some who couldn't make the scene).

Be with you again next week, be the Lord willing. Take care.

Historic Volumes Received

A spokesman for the Pickaway County Historical Society today announced that Unigraphic, Inc., Evansville, Ind., publishers of The History of Franklin and Pickaway Counties, Ohio With Biographical Sketches of Some of the Prominent Men and Pioneers, has made delivery of the reproduced volume which includes 157-page every name index, listing 25,000 names.

The History of Franklin and Pickaway Counties was originally published by Williams Bros in the year 1880 and is the basic historical record of these two counties. The index, which members and friends of the Society have been working on since January, is an integral part of the historic volume as it will permit those who are interested in genealogical research to seek out family ties with a minimum of difficulty.

Those who placed prepublication orders may pick up their copies at the Pickaway County Historical Society Museum on July 21 and 24 between 2 and 4 p.m.

Ohio Weather

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

After some record breaking cool temperatures during the night, a high pressure area centered over Ohio Wednesday morning and moving eastward, is allowing warmer air from the plains to spread into the state today and Thursday.

The cool clear night brought some record low temperatures for this date. Youngstown broke the old record of 50 degrees set in 1971 as the mercury fell to 47. In Columbus a low of 54 broke the old record of 56 set in 1954. Temperatures were in the 50s in most areas with some readings in the 40s in the northeast. Along the Ohio River lows were in the mid 60s.

With the warmer air approaching, an area of cloudiness and thundershowers from the upper Great Lakes will spread eastward today toward the lower Great Lakes and some increase in cloudiness can be expected late today through Thursday. A chance of thundershowers are forecast for Ohio Thursday.

Guilty Plea Entered In Shooting Death

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Brenda Yvonne Davis, 28, of Cincinnati, pleaded guilty Tuesday to a reduced charge of second-degree murder in the shooting death of her husband's girl friend.

Peggy Ann Wiseman, 24, was shot to death last year as she sat in a car with Henry Davis, police said.

Judge John Keefe ordered a presentence investigation. Mrs. Davis' attorney said his client was under stress at the time of the shooting because Miss Wiseman had "flaunted" the affair in his client's face.

State Water Safety Promoted

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "Commodore Buckeye" has a light-hearted look. But his message is serious.

He's spreading the Ohio Division of Watercraft's safety guidelines to the nearly one million Ohio boaters.

There have been 60 boating accidents and 19 boating deaths since Jan. 1, according to Tom Smith, watercraft division chief.

While Smith's prognosis for the remainder of 1974 is not as grim as last year—177 accidents and 71 deaths — his division has been carrying on an extensive educational campaign.

Commodore Buckeye — a cartoon character with a nautical cap set on his plump buckeye figure — is featured in a pamphlet called "Boating in Ohio."

No Lottery At Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The sale of any type of lottery ticket on county or state fairgrounds is illegal, according to Ohio Agriculture Director Gene Abercrombie.

"We have had to stop auto raffles, bingo games and other games of this type in the past," Abercrombie said, "so I would have to stop the selling of lottery tickets."

He said he would want a legal opinion before allowing a drawing at a fair.

Abercrombie said he first raised the question of a drawing's legality several weeks ago at a meeting of the Ohio Exposition Commission, which operates the state fair.

The commission has asked Atty. Gen. William Brown for an informal opinion. Brown's office said a reply is expected in a few weeks.

The commission had proposed that the first lottery drawing be held Aug. 22 during the Ohio State Fair.

Claim Restroom Dirt Brought Illness Attacks

MUSKINGUM, Ohio (AP) — A "dirty restroom" has been blamed by state health officials for a recent outbreak of Shigellosis at Blue Rock State Park in Muskingum County.

Dr. John Ackerman, deputy director of community health at the Ohio Department of Health, said Monday that 10 cases of the dysenteric illness causing diarrhea and stomach discomfort were reported following the July 4th weekend.

Officials said some persons were hospitalized when fever and other symptoms persisted.

Blue Rock State Park manager John Schilling disputed the charge saying, "It didn't start here" because the restrooms are cleaned every day.

Find Brothers Guilty Of Attacking Home

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Two brothers found guilty last May of attacking the home of a Columbus public school official were sentenced Monday by a Franklin County Common Pleas Judge.

Judge Clifford Rader sentenced John Gerhardt II, 22, and Edward P. Gerhardt, 20, both of Columbus to one-to-five-year terms in the Mansfield Reformatory.

The brothers were convicted of two counts each of assault with a deadly weapon and one count each of malicious destruction of property.

"We had 400,000 copies of this pamphlet printed," Smith said. "We're passing them out with each new registration, and our watercraft education and enforcement officers are distributing them at state parks."

Each weekend field officers, together with Coast Guard instructors, lecture on boating safety at a different state park.

"Last week they talked to 1,200 people at Kelleys Island," Smith said. "This weekend, they'll be at Indian Lake."

Ohio law does not require boat operators to have a license. Only the watercraft must be registered.

Because the number of boating deaths in Ohio in 1973 nearly doubled over the previous year, the watercraft division mounted its massive safety campaign.

"The chief item we push is to have the proper number of lifejackets in the boat and know how to use them," said Smith.

Also being stressed are proper loading, starting procedures for power boats with inboard motors, safety and navigational equipment, and the rules of the road.

"Not too many boaters are familiar with the rules of the road," Smith added. "We try to teach them such elementary regulations as which boat has the right of way under what conditions."

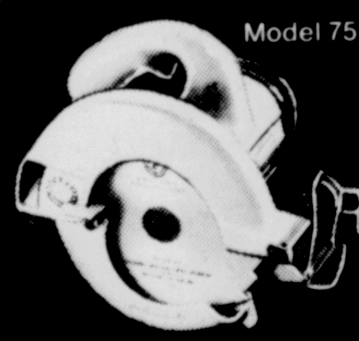

Smith pointed out, for example, that powercraft must always yield to sailboats.

According to the watercraft division head, boats 16 feet and under are involved in the majority of accidents and deaths.

He added that last year a disproportionate number of these were canoes.

"The biggest cause of death is through capsizing or people falling overboard," Smith said. "That's why we stress the importance of lifejackets. You're required to have one for each person in the boat."

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

ABA Moves In Signings

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Basketball Association, apparently lulled into a false sense of security when a merger with the National Basketball Association appeared imminent, now has regrouped strongly since the absorption proposal fell through.

The ABA, after a slow start in signing collegiate draft choices because of the latest merger negotiations which dissipated last month, was to announce its biggest signing today — All-American Marvin Barnes of Providence.

Barnes, a muscular 6-foot-8, 213-pounder, reportedly had agreed to a six-year, $2.5 million contract with the new St. Louis team, which would play its games in the 18,000-seat St. Louis Arena.

His signing follows those of Bobby Jones of the University of North Carolina and Jan van Breda Kolff of Vanderbilt with the Denver Rockets, Len Elmore of the University of Vanderbilt and Bruce King of PanAmerican with the Indiana Pacers, Roscoe Pondexter of Long Beach State with the Virginia Squires and Collis Temple of Louisiana State University with the San Antonio Spurs.

Barnes, Jones and Elmore all were NBA first-round draft picks, van Breda Kolff was a second-round choice, and King and Pondexter were third-round selections. All were highly coveted.

Views On Television

NEW YORK (AP) — ABC News' fine "Close-Up" series takes a badly-needed look tonight at a question we rarely hear much about — the adequacy of the health care this wealthy nation provides the children of its poor.

The one-hour show, which concludes that such care is woefully lacking, deserves an "A" for intent. Alas, it also deserves a "D" for execution in its attempt at telling a compelling, difficult story. It is over-written, dispassionate to a fault and weighed down by various studies that have all the right figures, all the strong conclusions and none of the impact television can and should provide.

"This is a program about a stark, painful reality," narrator Herb Kaplow observes in the show. "It's about families who find it difficult or impossible to pay for medical care for their children. And so it's about inadequate care or no care at all."

Moments earlier, an impoverished Appalachian mother has recounted how a doctor at a hospital emergency room turned away her seriously ill son because she couldn't immediately pay for the boy's hospitalization.

She says when she told the physician she lacked both cash and medical insurance, the doctor told her: "Well, just take him home and give him some aspirin."

This is intended to be the reality of which Kaplow speaks, but nowhere do we learn any details — the type of insurance she meant, the nature of her son's illness, or even the name of the doctor and what he might have to say in his own defense.

It seems to typify a basic flaw in the show, a reluctance to stray from easily researched statistics for detailed stories of children who need and aren't getting adequate health care.

There are several heart-breaking interviews with such children and their parents, but no specific follow-ups, no grillings of the officials directly responsible for seeing that the kids are helped.

It's Not Flowing

TEL AVIV (AP) — "A land flowing with milk and honey" is how Israelis sometimes refer to their biblical home. But the price of milk has gone up more than 50 per cent in the past six months — to 25 cents a quart — and Israeli grocers report a shortage of honey.

A difference of two degrees in heating and air-conditioning units in United States homes would save the equivalent of 100 million tons of coal a year, experts estimate.

Silver Bridge Weakness Aired During Testimony

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Initial testimony in the first of the Silver Bridge suits against the state—continued until Oct. 21 after two days this week—centered on the quality of inspections performed on the Ohio River structure before its collapse.

Lawyers for the claimants say that when the hearing resumes, they will produce experts to prove the state Department of Highways (formerly the State Road Commission) knew about structural weaknesses in the suspension bridge but did nothing.

The Silver Bridge, linking Point Pleasant in Mason County with Kanawha, Ohio, collapsed during a winter-time rush hour on Dec. 15, 1967, plunging vehicles and persons into the icy Ohio River and killing 46. Since the state of West Virginia had owned the 40-year-old bridge since 1941, 56 claims totaling $6.4 million have been filed against the Highways Department for death, injury and damages.

Both sides have agreed to let the three-judge Court of Claims decide with two cases if the state is liable. If the state is judged liable, the rest of the cases will determine damage amounts.

The panic and chaos of that December evening were far from the hearing Monday and Tuesday, as engineers and lawyers discussed structural flaws and stress in the somber opulence of the state Senate Judiciary Committee room in the Capitol.

Witness Bill S. Hanshaw Jr. slowly and deliberately fielded questions all Tuesday from Atty. Gen. Chancey Browning Jr., representing the state, and claimants' attorneys Chester Levett of Charleston and Harry A. Sherman of Pittsburgh.

Hanshaw, who was assistant engineer for the Road Commission in the district in which the bridge was located, told the court he knew that failure of any one eye-bar could cause collapse of the bridge, but he told none of his superiors that fact nor did he recommend any measures to make the bridge safe if one eye-bar should fail, he said.

The suspension bridge was held up by two rows of about 1,500 cast-steel bars with an eye-shaped hole in the center containing a 300-pound pin. Previous findings indicated that the bridge crumbled because of an eighth-inch crack in one eyebar. The bridge was one of three in the world at that time. One at St. Marys has since been torn down; the other is in Brazil, but has four rows of eye-bars.

Dead Woman Was Unhappy

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Christine Chubbuck, the Florida television personality who committed suicide on the air, has been described by a former roommate as "very brilliant, but never terribly happy."

Mrs. Durand Pope, who now owns a business in Hudson, Ohio, shared an apartment with Miss Chubbuck for two years in Cleveland.

Miss Chubbuck died early Tuesday in a Sarasota, Fla., hospital, 14 hours after she shot herself in the head while conducting a news program on WXLTV in Sarasota.

Mrs. Pope remembered the Hudson native as "a wonderful person, very brilliant, but never terribly happy."

Miss Chubbuck began college at Miami of Ohio, majoring in theater arts. She switched to Endicott Junior College in Beverly, Mass., and graduated from Boston University.

Her father, George Chubbuck, still lives in Hudson.

Set Agents For Lottery

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Lottery Commission says it is beginning today to deliver licenses to the first 1,000 ticket sales agents whose applications have been approved.

The commission said these are the first of 10,000 agents who will be licensed eventually.

Commissioners said Tuesday they hope the agents will sell 10 to 11 million tickets the first week after sales start Aug. 12. Normal weekly sales are expected to run from five to six million tickets.

The first drawing is set for Aug. 22 at the Parmatown Shopping Center in suburban Parma.

Meanwhile, an official of the state attorney general's office said he believes the commission can legally sell lottery tickets on the state fairgrounds and conduct a lottery drawing at the state fair Aug. 29.

Bomb Blast In London Injures 20

LONDON (AP) — An explosion today rocked the tower of London, one of Britain's most historic monuments, and Scotland Yard said 20 persons were injured.

Scotland Yard suspected a terrorist bomb caused the blast. A spokesman said police had no confirmation of this.

Irish terrorists set off an explosion June 17 that damaged the houses of Parliament and injured seven persons.

Ambulances went to the scene of the medieval fortress where England's Tudor kings had their enemies beheaded.

The Tower, actually a castle on the River Thames in east London, also houses the crown jewels of Queen Elizabeth II.

"There was a terrific bang and a huge column of smoke rose over the Tower. There are police cars, fire engines and ambulances everywhere," a Port of London Authority official said.

The area around the Tower was crowded with tourists.

A shopgirl said the explosion appeared to come from the ground floor level of the Tower, built 900 years ago by William the Conqueror.

It was there that the unfortunate wives of Henry VIII lost their heads.

Crown jewels kept at the Tower are priceless. One stone alone, the famed Koh-I-Noor diamond, was estimated to be worth $5.6 million, and that was in 1850. This diamond is now in the front of the queen mother's crown.

The heavily guarded crown jewels' room contains crowns, scepters, golden staffs, rods, rings, diamonds and gems, and gold and silver plate.

Makarios Planning U.N. Appeal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Archbishop Makarios said today he left Cyprus because he felt he would be able to help his people more effectively in their struggle against dictatorship from outside the country.

He spoke on arrival in England as the military regime that unseated him on Cyprus pushed ahead with its takeover of the Mediterranean island.

Makarios said the coup against him Monday was organized by the Greek military regime in Athens and led by Greek officers serving in his national guard.

"They tried to kill me by attacking the presidential palace with mortars and other weapons," he said. "The palace was demolished."

"They thought I was killed and they said on the radio that I was taken—but as you can see I am alive."

"I succeeded in escaping. I went first to Paphos, where there is a radio station from which I made several broadcasts to my people."

"Yesterday morning a small warship of the national guard fired at the radio station and demolished it, while at the same time armored cars and tanks moved toward Paphos."

4 Injured In Crash On Route 22

Four people were injured when a Picketon woman, 45-year-old Louise M. Everett, allegedly pulled her auto into the path of a car driven by Harry I. Stonerock, 78, Williamsport, Tuesday at 10 a.m.

The accident occurred on Route 22 at the W. Mound St. intersection.

Deputies said Ms. Everett had stopped at the stop sign on W. Mound St., but drove into the path of the Stonerock car, which was headed east on Route 22.

Ms. Everett and her son, David Everett, 6, were treated at Berger Hospital for minor injuries.

Stonerock was treated for pains in his right arm and Beryl Stonerock, 79, Williamsport, was treated for back injuries.

Ms. Everett was charged with failing to yield.

An eight-point buck was killed Wednesday at 9:05 a.m. when it ran into the path of a truck on Route 104, just north of the Ross County line.

Driver of the truck was Donald Parker, 49, Columbus, who was southbound on Route 104 and rounding a left curve when the buck sprang from heavy brush along the side of the road.

Paphos is Makarios's home town in southwest Cyprus.

Explaining his decision to leave, Makarios said, "I didn't want to fall into the hands of the Greek junta. I preferred to leave Cyprus. I felt that going into hiding was not the answer...."

After consultation with British government leaders, Makarios was expected to fly on to New York to appeal to the United Nations Security Council for help in reversing the coup that unseated him on Monday.

The British forces' radio station on Cyprus reported a calm night for the island, with only "an occasional rifle shot and automatic weapons fire heard." It said the curfew imposed by leaders of the coup on Greek Cypriot sectors of the island had been lifted but might be reimposed later in the day.

A pooled news dispatch late Tuesday from Nicosia, the capital, said shooting continued in some towns. But Greek sources in Athens reported the surrender of pro-Makarios forces in Paphos, the president-archbishop's stronghold to which he had fled Monday, and the National Guard whose officers from the Greek Army led the coup appeared to be gaining control of most key points on the island.

The Security Council met in emergency session in New York on Tuesday but after inconclusive debate adjourned to await developments. The United States and Britain urged a wait-and-see policy. The Soviet Union accused the Greek military junta in Athens of instigating the coup and said "time will not wait." And the U.N. delegate from the Makarios government appealed to the council to order a ceasefire.

In Nicosia, a seven-man civilian cabinet was sworn in to work with Nikos Sampson, the militant advocate of enosis (union with Greece) who was picked by the leaders of the coup to replace Makarios as president.

Makarios, after three defiant radio broadcasts from the bishop's palace in Paphos, took refuge on Tuesday in one of Britain's air bases on Cyprus and then was flown to Malta, where the British governor general and Prime Minister Dom Mintoff welcomed him as a chief of state. A Royal Air Force plane waited to fly him to London.

Paphos, on the southwest coast of Cyprus, reportedly fell to the rebels after navy gunboats shelled the city and the National Guard mounted a land offensive with tanks and artillery from Nicosia and Limassol.

The town was reported defended by hundreds of civilians and police.

Gunfire was still heard in Nicosia on Tuesday, but the National Guard controlled all key points in the city's Greek Cypriot sector.

Little Progress In GM Walkout

LORDSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—A union spokesman says little progress is being made as talks drag on between striking United Auto Workers Local 1112 and General Motors Corp. officials at the big Lordstown assembly plant.

Marlin Ford, president of Local 1112, said Tuesday the outlook after that day's session was "no better than it was yesterday."

A company spokesman said Tuesday some progress had been made but declined to go into details.

The 7,800 workers have been on strike since Friday in a dispute over a local contract.
